

to the power of

The debate sections:

2.05 - 2.25: Provision, services and funding for young people

(E.g. What provision is there? How do funding cuts affect provision? Worklessness. How are young people involved in decision making?)

Dr Chris Packham, NHS Nottingham City

Jane Todd, Nottingham City Council

Councillor David Mellen

Nigel Cooke, One Nottingham

2.25-2.45: Double standards and mixed messages

(E.g. How young people are portrayed, what is classified as criminal activity, morality and expectations of young people)

Councillor David Mellen

Councillor Alex Norris

Martin Glynn, Birmingham City University/Sankofa Associates

2.45- 3.00: Justice and human rights

(E.g. restorative justice (making amends), sentencing, who can influence the law)

Martin Glynn, Birmingham University/Sankofa Associates

Martin Smalley, Martin Smalley Solicitors

3.00- 3.45: Community safety and policing

(E.g. parenting, anti-social behaviour, neighbourhood watch, policing of the areas, etc.)

Councillor Alex Norris

Peter Moyes, Nottingham CDP

Simon Nickless, Nottinghamshire Police

to the power of

has been brought to you by the Independent Advisory Group in partnership with 97.5 kemet fm.

